The restaurant industry is stepping up to the plate, providing workers with the critical skills they'll need for a career in restaurants or any industry.

From entry-level to executive, restaurants are a place of opportunity, jump-starting careers and training America's workforce. Restaurants have a proven track record of providing a ladder to career success: 91 percent of restaurant managers started as entry-level employees. And over the next 10 years, restaurants are expected to add 1.7 million jobs—many of which will be entry-level positions that give employees across America the start they need to chart a successful path forward.
